The seventh edition of Foundations of the Vocational Rehabilitation Process provides historical, philosophical, legislative, and sociological foundations for the habilitation/rehabilitation of persons with disabilities. A thorough and current introduction to the American vocational rehabilitation process, this edition addresses mandates presented in the current major pieces of disability legislation influencing the practice of rehabilitation, including: Greater involvement of individuals with significant disabilities
Alternative approaches to vocational placement
Provision of independent living services
Expansion of rehabilitation/habilitation services for individuals with developmental disabilities
Access to health care
Protection of the civil rights of people with disabilities. This book presents theoretical and practical assistance in translating those mandates into positive action. It is this dual process of individual and environmental proactivity that can maximize the rehabilitation of disabled individuals. Not just for the dedicated rehabilitation counselor, this book is also for students attending an introductory course at the Master's- or senior-level and in-service directors who design informative training programs. New in the seventh edition: Updated chapter on how The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), as amended in 2008, prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in employment, public services, accommodations, and telecommunications. Updated section on the right to medical treatment in light of the 2012 Affordable Care Act (ACA).
