Playing With Fire: Adventures in Indonesia Nick Langston-Able

It is the middle of the night on the rim of one of the highest volcanoes in the world. A lone figure attempts to retrieve a baseball cap lying precariously close to the crater's edge. The wind cuts through his clothes; he is exhausted. He looks up and smiles. Indonesia, a land of ancient temples, lush rainforests and hidden beaches, it is a backpacker's dream. Massive volcanoes dominate the landscape and the instability of the land is matched by the economic and political upheaval taking place. It is against this perilous backdrop that Nick Langston-Able made his first, life-changing journey to the country on an adventure through the islands of Java, Bali and Lombok. "Playing with Fire" is his tale, recounting a journey of high times, independence companionship and a bit of good luck as he sets out to fulfil his dream to discover both Indonesia, and himself.
