Cardtown, Mountraih Ireland, August, 1868. Dear Lord Dunraven: The following sketches of the Realities of Irish Life have been penned by me from time to time within the last few years. The idea of placing them on record was first suggested by your Lordship and your accomplished cousin Miss Gallwey. During the many pleasant hours we have passed together in boating and other excursions on the beautiful bay, and amongst the mountains and valleys of Kenmare, Ireland in her various phases was often discussed between us. Those incidents which have occurred to me during a somewhat eventful experience amongst her people on their native soil were not unfrequently the subject of conversation; and your Lordship and your cousin often urged me to commit them to paper. I have done so in the following pages, and I now venture to lay them before the public.
