Thank You My Angel Susan Davis

Thank You, My Angel's three-book series is based on some of Susan Davis's deepest, darkest times of her young life. During her late teenage years through her young twenties, she was a victim of domestic abuse and violence. Her life was horrific; she lived in fear in every moment of each day. There was no escape. On a cold winter's night, she met an angel. The angel became her salvation. Because of life's twists and turns, Susan finally found her way back to writing this story. Susan enjoys writing for Trip Advisor and joined the team in December of 2014. She is actively in sharing her reviews and comments world-wide including shows, restaurants, amusements and vacation destinations. She proudly owns a Highlighted badge reaching a readership of 20,000. Susan is on Level Five for Contributions and Level Nine for Attraction Expert. Her ninth grade English teacher gave the class a creative writing assignment on a subject of their choice. Susan wrote a modern-day love story based on the classic, "Romeo and Juliet". It was then she was told of her gift of writing and she's had that writing bug ever since. Susan's greatest accomplishments were overcoming the life of domestic abuse and violence; re-learning self-worth, self-confidence, self-respect and also learning she is a good person who deserves a good life. She is thrilled to share that on June 1, 1988 her dream came true. Susan married the love of her life.
