Launch into Community Life: Building a master plan of action with your small group to eliminate leader burnout and increase member participation. Michael C. Mack

This book of introductory agendas is designed to help you and your group:

Create a unique vision and mission that is powerful and motivating for each member.

Involve everyone in the life of the group to increase ownership.

Form a core team who will pray and plan together, insuring you don't experience burn out.

The four biblically-based sessions in this book will help you move through those first awkward weeks of small group life. Each week's topic is easy to facilitate. The between-the-meeting options will help the members of your group become a spiritual family. Start your new small group with Launch into Community Life and you'll enjoy leadership from day one!
