Alone in the Caribbean (Classic Reprint) Frederic Abildgaard Fenger

Item I order that my executors purchase a large stone, the best that they can find, and place it upon my grave, and that they write round the edge of it these words: Here lies the honourable Chevalier Diego Mendez, who rendered great services to the royal crown of Spain, in the discovery and conquest of the Indies, in company with the discoverer of them, the Admiral Don Christopher Columbus, of glorious memory, and afterwards rendered other great services by himself, with his own ships, and at his own cost. He died. . . He asks of your charity a Paternoster and an Ave Maria. Item In the middle of the said stone let there be the representation of a canoe, which is a hollowed tree, such as the Indians use for navigation; for in such a vessel did I cross three hundred leagues of sea; and let them engrave above it this word: CANOA.
