The Power of 2 John Holding

Adam Rosewood has long been embittered at the early misfortune he suffered in life. Now, following the death of close friend, Colin, he has come to a crossroads. Together, he and buddy, Ferris, decide to mend their ways. Mo and Harvey Scallion are enforcers for London gangster Cornelius (Con) Callaghan. Harvey expects one day to step into Con's shoes, but is unsettled by the sinister arrival into their long-established group of a snivelling little man. Mo has no grand ambitions; as an albino prone to light induced headaches, violence is both an outlet and a friend. But when the brothers learn that Con has bought a stake in notorious gang lord Sholto Carnie's new business venture they know it spells trouble. The investment has eaten up every penny Con has, and, with time pressing, he needs a little more. Con plans to have Mo and Harvey extort money from some old 'clients' whose luck has turned. When Harvey suggests a fallback, Adam and Ferris inherit a small debt that will prove more costly than anyone imagined. Confronted by the hardened Scallion brothers Adam and Ferris are out of their depth and must come up with cash they don't have; they are faced with the prospect of making a run for it or pulling off one last job. The Power of 2 is a rollercoaster ride contrasting the relative security of suburban village life with the menace of the underworld. Snappy dialogue and creative plot twists reveal a nest of vipers amid a world of sleazy gentlemen's clubs, shady dealings, and grisly, brutal murder. Told from the alternating perspectives of Adam and Mo, the pair are on a collision course; a path that will force them to confront life and find their place in it. For Adam Rosewood and Mo Scallion the time has come – their future lies in The Power of 2.
