'Thoughts and Poetry for the Soul and out of Boredom' is a compilation of short, easy to read, thoughts and poems I have written over the course of a few years, which I began posting on Facebook as a way to vent, share, or maybe even educate my soul and hopefully others. For the most part, I made them short and concise so as to allow the reader to get a "literary quickie" and be on their way. Everything that you are about to read here has come right out of my heart, and may or may not make sense to you, but it guarantees to keep you busy for a while, and who knows, maybe even I'll get a smile or two out of you. This book contains no profanity that I can think of, so I think it is safe for teens to read, but if you find any words not suitable for kids, be sure to write me promptly and I will rewrite it. ALL proceeds go into helping low income families and Veterans. Peace and Love, Engel.
