Home at Last (The Matanuska Series #3) Bonnie Leon

Home at Last is the conclusion to the historical fiction series set in the Alaskan frontier prior to World War II. After Jean and Ray's wedding feelings of resentment, anger, and betrayal continue to fester, He decides he must leave Alaska. Knowing that he needs to change his life, he searches the Bible for guidance, realizing like Jonah, he has been running from God. Luke returns home to Alaska to make peace with all the things that drove him away before.
