Jews and Christians in Denmark: From the Middle Ages to Recent Times, CA. 1100-1948 (Brill Reference Library of Judaism.) Martin Schwarz Lausten

In Jews and Christians in Denmark: From the Middle Ages to Recent Times, ca. 1100 1948, Martin Schwarz Lausten investigates how the Church and society followed the European antijudaistic tradition using insults, adversities and attempted conversions during Catholic times from around 1100 and Protestant times starting around 1536. In spite of the tolerant policies of integration initiated by the government beginning in the 1800s, anti-Semitic movements arose among priests, professors and local authorities. However, during the German occupation (1940 1945) priests and many others assisted the 7,000 Danish Jews in their escape to Sweden. Based on Jewish and Christian sources, Jewish reactions to life in Denmark are also examined."
