Special Document Section Includes: Bodily Injury Demand Letter Underinsured Motorist Demand Letter Bodily Injury Time-Limit Warning Letter™ Underinsured Motorist Time-Limit Warning Letter™ Questions & Answers Q: Why is your book called the California edition? A: Auto injury claims are settled in much the same way throughout the United States, but laws protecting citizens from harm, and consumer rights protecting policy holders from insurance company fraud and mismanagement of claims, differ from state to state. Q: My auto insurance policy has liability coverage of “100/300”. What does this mean? A: Your liability policy limits are $100,000 per person, per incident, not to exceed $300,000 if multiple parties are injured in the collision. Q: Why didn’t you hire a lawyer? A: I actually had two lawyers. After retaining my first lawyer, weeks passed without hearing from him about my case. I later learned that he was having personal problems, and had abandoned all his cases without notifying his clients. I severed ties with this attorney. I then retained an attorney who looked good on paper, but after signing a contract for legal representation, I received a letter from his firm informing me that my claim would be handled by another attorney, one who I had never heard of. After doing some research, I learned that my new attorney’s license to practice law had been suspended for fraud in a personal injury case, and that he was on probation with the California State Bar. I immediately fired this attorney and was unable to retain another because of his work on my claim. _____ Thank you for your comments & questions.
