Molly Rides the School Bus Julie Brillhart

It's the first day of kindergarten, and Molly is worried. She's never been on a school bus, and she's afraid she won't know what to do. What if she has to sit with a big kid? Her mom assures her that big kids are nice, and riding the bus is fun. But Molly's not so sure. She brings her bear, Willy, along for comfort.

On the bus there are so many new faces. Molly walks down the aisle to an empty seat, only to discover that Willy is gone! Suddenly, she sees him flying through the air. Tossed from seat to seat, Willy finally ends up in the lost-and-found box. An older girl, named Ruby, fishes him out and returns him to Molly. During the rest of the ride, Ruby and Molly talk, laugh, and listen to music. Molly decides that big kids are nice and riding the school bus is fun.
