Plan B (Surviving Southside) Charman Simon

Cassie, a high school senior, and her boyfriend Luke, become sexually involved and face an unexpected pregnancy. For Cassie this is especially problematic because she is the daughter of a single mother and never wanted to have a child outside of marriage. Now Cassie and Luke have to think beyond their current ideal plans: Cassie's desire to continue with her love of dance and Luke's plans to accept an athletic scholarship to a top university. Complicating their decisions about what to do are the differing opinions of their friends and family. Will the strain break the couple up or will they be able to pull together to make the right decision for themselves and the baby?
