School is finally over, and Will Carter has (barely) survived his freshman year. Unfortunately, he quickly learns that the summer break he's been craving just might break him. When he and his girlfriend, Abby, part ways, Carter can't help but think his summer is ruined.

Things start to look up after he's unexpectedly cast in an independent film opposite the world's biggest tween sensation, Hilary Idaho. With Hollywood knocking on his door, Carter gets a taste of the good life. Suddenly, his small town, friends, and family don't seem as great as they used to. As tends to happen when Carter is around, things spirals out of control, and he begins to fear that he's not the "somebody" he thinks he is but more of the "nobody" he's pretty sure he always has been. But maybe, with the help of a few friends, he'll start to see things in a whole new light.

Find out if Carter goes Hollywood...or Hollywood goes Carter.

Maria Simmons:

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Carter's Big Break (A Carter Novel) can make you feel more interested to read.
