Streets are more than thoroughfares. Cobblestone or concrete, state of mind or situation?streets are catalysts for culture; sources of knowledge and connection, invisible routes to hidden levels of influence. In worlds where magic is real, streets can be full of dangerous shadows or paths to salvation. Wizards walk such streets, monsters lurk in their alleys, demons prowl or strut, doors open to places full of delightful enchantment or seething with sorcery, and truly dead ends abound. This selection of stories?some tales may be rediscoveries, others never encountered on your fictional map?will take you for a wild ride through many realms of imagination.
