Free Logic (UQP Poetry Series) Rachael Briggs

Transmuting techniques, forms, and figures as she moves with enviable ease from themes of love through landscape to logic, Rachael Briggs evinces a relentless inventiveness and intelligence in this collection of poems. Structured as eight sets of inventive poems, from “Twelve Love Stories,” which features different kinds of love to “Solve for X and Y,” which pits characters against surreal problems to “Tough Luck,” a crown of sonnets which follows one narrator through a journey of unrequited love and identity discovery, this exciting new volume announces the arrival of a fresh and vital voice in Australian poetry.
