Perhaps it was the discovery of a hidden message written within the pages of a forbidden notebook, or maybe it was just too soon to move on from the past - whatever the true cause was - something had definitely snapped in the mind of Gabriela Hilson that caused her to flee, leaving Khali Simone alone at the alter on their wedding day. Many were left baffled and speculating, and for over a year - except for the abandoned BMW left on the airport's parking lot - there were no real leads as to the whereabouts of the runaway bride. She'd simply vanished or flown away for no apparent reason, or so it seemed... But in reality, there's always a truth - a beginning and an ending - to everything. Gabriela thought she'd escaped her nightmares and she had for a while until a bout of deja vu strikes. Then suddenly, she finds herself haunted at night, once again, but this time unlike no other. Reoccurring dreams are drawing her to a secret place; a place of answers. A place Gabriela is hesitant to go until one courageous night when she creeps from her bed and follows her intuition. Whatever happened that night forces Gabriela to pack up everything immediately - including her most prized possession - and head back to the place, and the very person she'd ran from... Khali Simone. She has to find him - and when she does - she enters into another nightmare. One that becomes the hardest of them all to escape. Because she can't escape... SECRET SKY.
