Excerpt from Altowan, Vol. 1 of 2: Or, Incidents of Life and Adventure in the Rocky Mountains

The following story has been written for the amusement of some young friends on Long Island. The sketches of Indian habits and the incidents of the chase which it contains, are taken from life, and the description of the regions where the scene is laid, in the western wilds, is drawn from Nature.

It has been written during voyages over heaving seas and in moments of idleness in various parts of the world; and, just as it is, without even a revision, I offer it to those for whom it was intended. Should it ever go beyond their fireside and be read by others, though I may bespeak their indulgence, I can owe them no apology.
