Lexi was hit by a car in a crosswalk while longboarding to her class at Brigham Young University. She was given less than 1% chance of survival. Her mother takes you on an incredible journey allowing the reader to see how the faith and prayers of her family and community literally brought her back to life. The book captivates the reader from the very first paragraph with its moving description of events. You won't want to put the book down. You will come to find out for yourself that God is indeed a God of miracles. While on earth Christ healed the sick and caused the lame to walk. Have those miracles ceased? This book testifies that miracles are not a thing of the past if we just call upon his name in mighty faith.
