Finding one's match has been described in the Talmud as a process as difficult as was the splitting of the Red Sea. With that in mind, Talking Tachlis was written to help single, Orthodox men and women learn more about themselves, formulate lasting goals based on their unique needs, and use this new understanding to determine what it is they are looking for in a spouse. Written by a psychotherapist and a family law attorney, both specializing in working with singles, this book contains valuable advice to aid, and hopefully hasten, the process of finding one's mate.
