Understanding the Work of the Holy Spirit in the Life of the Church Dan Johnson

The baptism of the Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation is the basis for (1) the believer's position "in Christ" as justified in right standing before God and (2) the believer's "participation" in the Lord's penal sacrifice whereby God's justice is satisfied. Apart from this singular baptism, the righteousness of Christ could never be applied to the believer and God could not be both just and the justifier of the ungodly.

(Romans 3:26) Dan Johnson is a minister of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is a graduate of Welch Bible College in Tennessee. He resides in Michigan with Lena, his wife of 25 years. They serve the body of Christ through the ministry of the Woodhaven Freewill Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Loyd Locklear.
