Holy Wars...Crusades...Jihad... This book is unique in its content in that it contains a brief comparison between the Torah, the Gospels and the Quran regarding rulings of Jihad and Warfare. The Islamic concept of Jihad is a continuation of the traditions of Prophets of old, such as Moses and Jesus, peace be upon them, as this book will explain. Jihad is not synonym to Terrorism. It does not mean, 'Holy War.' It is an Islamic act of worship that is plain, simple, well-defined and is restricted by a set of limits beyond which one transgresses the limits of Allah (God). For those who seek to know what Jihad means as prescribed in the Quran and the tradition of Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him; For those who seek knowledge that is based on what the Quran states and ordains on Muslims regarding Jihad; For those who want to read about Jihad as written by Muslims who read the Quran and the tradition of their Prophet and derive rulings from these two resources, not from their opinions and ideas; For those who want to break free from the myths and misconceptions about Islam and the Quran; For those who seek the truth, we present this book.
