Are you single, dating, married or considering a divorce?

Why not spice up your relationship with insights from a book that is simple, straight to the point, easy to read, and understand? This book is full of practical stories, pictures and quotes you can easily connect and recall.

Although not exhaustive, the writer exposes people who are about getting married to some qualities to look out for in selecting their spouses, what happens if you are already married but missed out on any of the qualities mentioned, reasons why spouses change in marriage, suggest ways by which marriage on the verge of break-up could be reactivated, rejuvenated or revived in order to avoid self- destruction. Finally, in an unconventional way he brings to bare spiritual issues that impacts marriages whether knowingly or unknowingly.

This book is a must read for all who are committed to making sure their marriages / relationships work no matter what.
