Beyond The Frame Peter Jeffcock

Ross Carter has a unique ability. He can slip into old photographs and interact with the people in the pictures. After his boss asks for help in saving his wayward brother from an untimely death back in the 1960s, Carter accepts the mission. He travels back and prevents the young man from being killed, but when Carter returns to the present time he finds the brother's influence has changed everything for the worse. Carter has no job, no wife, no home and the man who was his boss is now dead – killed by the brother Carter had saved. His only chance of putting everything right is to go back and ensure that the brother dies, as he originally did. But once he returns to the past he meets up with an adversary who is hell bent on saving the brother's life – he meets himself...
